4 of 4 review helpful One to watch By Athan I got two thirds of the way through this remarkable set of essays before I started thinking Mark Greif might actually be "for" something rather than simply "against everything" as he claims Even at that point I was far from disappointed because he is a formidable author I've read a lot in my years and English prose like his is a brilliant collection of essays by a young writer who is already a star in the intellectual firmament As William Deresiewicz has written in Harper's Magazine "Mark Greif is an intellectual full stop There is much of Lionel Trilling in Greif Much also of Susan Sontag What he shares with both and with the line they represent is precisely a sense of intellect — of thought of mind — as a conscious actor in the world"
