Burke:

Democracy is the most monstrous of all governments because it is impossible at once to act and control and consequently the Sovereign Power is then left without any restraint whatever That form of government is the best which places the efficient direction in the hands of the aristocracy subjecting them in its exercise to the control of the people at large mdash Sir James Mackintosh The intellectual homage of more than half a century has assigned to Edmund About the Author Edmund Burke III is Professor of History at the University of California Santa Cruz He is the editor of Rethinking World History Essays on Europe Islam and World History by Marshall G S Hodgson 1993 and co editor with Ira Lapidus of
